Skateboarding first for Fabus

The Brampton Guardian
Tuesday July 22 2008

BRAMPTON - On his 15th birthday Brampton skateboarder Justin Fabus, also known as J. Fabulous, took first place at a recent skateboarding competition in Brampton held by West 49, winning $350. Skating for a little more than five years, Fabus has quickly become a recognized name in the GTA, placing in the top three in just about every competition he has entered. He is dedicated to skateboarding, practicing more than 30 hours a week. In a few weeks he will be traveling to the Amateur International Skateboarding Competition in Montreal where he is hoping his training and hours of practice will help him make a splash there. Fabus has received support from FIGJAM Apparel Inc., a Canadian streetwear clothing company and marketing group. Justin Hanna, director of marketing and part owner said his company is excited about working with Fabus. "For a 15-year-old kid, Justin got a determination rarely seen, you can see it in his eyes every time he jumps on the board, which is why we have such high hopes for him." He's also a great role model. When he's at the Brampton park you always see him showing young skaters the ropes and the tricks of the trade, which is great because the growth of skateboarding as a sport has always been about skaters helping other skaters. When a 15-year old is asked to sit on the committee that designed Brampton's newest skate park you know this is a guy who is respected in the sport, community, and liked by his peers."
